

DRESS CODE POLICY

Objective

Maintaining a professional, businesslike appearance is very important to the success and image of the TechAhead Software. Every employee of TechAhead ("Employee") may, at one time or another, encounter customers, stakeholders, and the public. Thus, it is important for all Employees to be dressed appropriately and present a well-groomed appearance at the office every day as this impinges on the reputation of the organization.

The objective of this dress code policy ("Policy") is to enable Employees to always project a professional and well-groomed appearance at the workplace projecting an image commensurate with professional values and reputation in the global market. The Policy may vary from depending on the nature of the work, exposure to the public, customers, local customs, religions, and the environment.

Scope

Since each of us is a representative of the TechAhead Software Ltd, we must pay attention to personal grooming and adhere to the recommended dress code. This Policy is intended to formulate guidelines on what is considered appropriate dress for the workplace. This Policy is not exhaustive in defining acceptable and not acceptable standards of dress and appearance and defines general parameters for appropriate attire.

Employees are expected to use good judgment and common sense in adhering to the principles supporting about the items not specifically addressed. Workplace for the purpose of this Policy includes: TechAhead Office/s client offices/ any other location where the Employees represents TechAhead.

Applicability

This Policy is applicable to all employees including direct contractors and third-party contractors of TechAhead.

Policy Details

General Guidelines for Dressing

- The Employees must be in Business Casuals from Monday to Thursday and Casuals are permitted only on Friday and weekend (Saturday/Sunday) if employees are working due to business exigency.
- Floaters, Slippers, Sneakers are firmly discouraged on week Days (Monday to Thursday).

TechAhead- Confidential

- All Employees are expected to adhere to the dress code guidelines at the workplace (both during and beyond official working hours if in office).
- All the Employees are expected to dress in accordance with acceptable standards of good taste, including being neat, clean, and well-groomed always.
- Torn, dirty, or frayed clothing are discouraged.

Employee ID cards must be always displayed in the office premises.

- Employees should avoid clothes and accessories that carry logos of our competitors.
- Clothes should be well-fitting oversized or body-hugging clothes should be avoided.
- Different dress code guidelines (details provided in Annexure in Forms section) are applicable depending on the day of the week.

Personal Grooming and Hygiene

- Clean, neatly ironed clothes and clean/polished footwear are fundamental to projecting a professional image.
- Hair: Hair should be neat, clean, and well groomed.
- Wearing hair ornaments and accessories like beads, coils, flowers and hats should be avoided.
- Side burns, moustaches and beards, if any, should be neatly groomed.
- When wearing jewelry at work, ensure that it projects a professional image.

Responsibility:

Employee Responsibility - It is the responsibility of each Employee to use judgment and common sense in selecting clothing that fits with the function of his/her position and the professional image and mission of the organization. If in doubt, Employees are expected to err on the conservative side.

Supervisory Responsibility- Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that Employees (team members) know, understand and adhere to this Policy directive.

Non-Compliance to Policy

If an item of clothing is deemed to be inappropriate for the office by the Employee's supervisor, the violation will be immediately brought to the attention of the Employee with a verbal warning. Repeated disregard for the Policy may result in progressive disciplinary action.

 HR and Senior Management will be the final authority on deciding the appropriateness of the Employee's attire.

Exceptions

- i. All the Employees in client facing roles like sales professionals and consultants need to be in Business Formals, details for the same are defined in the Annexure.
- ii. While deputed at a client site, the Employee should adhere to the dress code that is prevalent at the client site. This, however, should be in line with the professional image of TechAhead.
- iii. In case the client guideline approves of casuals at work on week days, Employees should follow the dress code standards as specified for TechAhead for week days.
- iv. Women may wear traditional local attire, provided it is as per the common practice in that location.
- v. Reasonable accommodation will be made for dress/grooming directly related to a disability.
- vi. Reasonable accommodation will be made for dress/grooming directly related to any religion or ethnicity. This, however, should be in line with the professional image of TechAhead and Employee's supervisor and HR partner must be informed on the need for this.
- vii. Some situations and special circumstances at certain locations may require deviation of the guidelines due to cultural, religious celebrations, medical, or regulatory compliance reasons. In such situations, the regional / geography head's discretion will apply in making an exception to this guideline.

Disclaimer – The Company reserves the right to alter, append or withdraw this policy either in part or in full, based on management's discretion.