

Probation Review Policy

Purpose

The probation period is designed to evaluate the employee's performance, suitability, and alignment with the organization's culture and goals. This policy outlines the process for assessing employees nearing the completion of their probation period.

Duration of Probation:

- Experienced Employees: 3 months.
- Freshers/Trainees: 6 months.

Step-by-step Process:

1. Feedback Submission on Keka

- Timeline: Two weeks before the probation period ends.
- Responsibility: The employee's Reporting/Project Manager must complete a detailed feedback form on Keka.
- Details to Include:
 - Strengths demonstrated by the employee during the probation.
 - Areas requiring improvement or development.
 - Goals for the employee moving forward.
 - Any challenges.

2. Employee meeting with the Reporting/Project Manager

- Timeline: Two weeks prior to the completion of the probation period (after the feedback form submission).
- Participants: Employee and their Reporting/Project Manager.
- Purpose:
 - Discuss the feedback shared in the form.
 - Provide constructive input on performance, goals, and growth areas.
 - Clarify expectations for future performance.
 - Address any challenges related to punctuality or code of conduct.

3. Meeting Between Reporting Manager and HR Team

- a. Timeline: After the reporting manager's meeting with the employee.
- b. Participants: Reporting/Project Manager and HR Team.
- c. Purpose:
 - Discuss the employee's performance, potential, and areas for development.
 - Align on feedback to be shared with the employee and finalize next steps.

4. Employee meeting with the HR Team

- a. Timeline: After HR's the meeting with the Reporting/Project Manager.
- b. Participants: Employee and a member of the HR Team.
- c. Purpose:
 - Address any employee concerns or queries regarding their probation.
 - Reinforce organizational policies and growth opportunities.
 - Confirm next steps in the probation process.

5. Formal Confirmation via Keka

- a. Timeline: Upon completion of the above steps.
- b. Process: A formal confirmation email will be sent to the employee through the Keka HR platform. This email will include details of their probation status, either confirming their transition to a permanent role or providing alternative decisions with rationale.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Reporting/Project Manager:
 - Complete the feedback form within the specified timeline.
 - Conduct a transparent and constructive discussion with the employee.
- HR Team:
 - Facilitate the probation review process.
 - Conduct the HR meeting with the reporting manager and employee.
 - Ensure timely communication and resolution of any concerns.
- Employee:
 - Actively participate in feedback discussions and meetings.
 - Seek clarity on feedback, expectations, and career path if required.

Additional Notes:

- If any performance issues are identified, they will be discussed with the employee, and appropriate actions (e.g., extension of probation or additional training) will be taken.
- All probation-related discussions and feedback will be documented for transparency and future reference.
- The probation period can be extended up to two times, each extension lasting 1 month. Employees will receive a prior notice regarding the extension, including reasons and areas for improvement.

This policy ensures a structured and transparent process for employees transitioning from probationary to permanent status, fostering their professional growth and alignment with TechAhead's values.

Issued By: HR Department

Date: 21 Jan, 2025